†Conceptions and illustrations used in sermons come from a mixture of sources. Acquired from numerous places, events and situations—including an annual subscription-based service—such stories and ideas are not necessarily original. Even so, like the messages and meanings of Scripture, they have ongoing relevance for lives such that we all live.

As people who are joyfully and unapologetically Christian,

We work to express our love, as Jesus teaches us, in three ways:
by loving God, neighbor, and self.

Christian love of God includes:

Walking fully in the path of Jesus,
without denying the legitimacy of other paths God may provide humanity;

Listening for God's Word which comes through daily prayer and meditation,
through studying the ancient testimonies which we call Scripture,
and through attending to God's present activity in the world;

Celebrating the God whose Spirit pervades and whose glory is reflected in all of God's Creation, including the earth and its ecosystems, the sacred and secular,
the Christian and non-Christian, the human and non-human;

Expressing our love
in worship that is as sincere, vibrant, and artful as it is scriptural.

Amen.
