

NEWS IN THE PEWS

WELCOME CANDACE LANSBERRY & KEN MOE! Rev. Candace Lansberry is the new North District Superintendent of the Desert Southwest Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Candace replaces Rev. David Devereaux; her office is also in Las Vegas. Rev. Ken Moe is the Executive Presbytery of the Presbytery of Grand Canyon; he has been at Federated Church numerous times over the years. Ken will be retiring later this year, hence this is likely his last official visit. Please greet both of these guests this morning!

PRAYERS OF SYMPATHY & SUPPORT are with former members Pat & Marty Hecht who are now living in southern California. Their daughter suffered a heart attack and died on Wednesday morning. Pat & Marty moved to California several years ago to be close to their children and grandchildren. May God's blessings of strength and comfort be with them in this tragic loss.

IN THE EVENT OF HEAVY SNOW tune to KAFF Country 92.9 FM or 93.0 AM for information on canceled church services and church programs.

THE UNITED STATES CENSUS will be taken in 2010. Part-time, full-time, office and field positions, offering competitive wages will be available for 5 to 10 weeks and longer. Testing will be offered here at Federated Church. Please call the U.S. Census Bureau at 1-866-861-2010 for information. Be sure to request Federated as your test site.

RUMMAGE SALE!! The youth are raising money for the summer mission project. Hopefully this summer we will be sending our senior high to Honduras and our Jr. High on their own adventure yet to be determined. In order to raise money we are planning to put on a church wide rummage sale sometime in the spring. So please hang on to all your rummage sale treasures if you want to donate them to the youth rummage sale. If you are interested in volunteering to help with this event please contact Jennifer Wytaske at 602-538-7349 or Laura Rambikur at 928-533-7092. Thanks!!

THE CHRISTIAN LIVING CLASS will begin a five week study of "Three Simple Rules" by Rueben P. Job on Sunday January 18th. The title of the study comes from three rules for living developed by John Wesley:

1. "Do no harm"
2. "Do good"
3. "Stay in Love with God"

They will meet in Room 9 of the Christian Education Building between Services. For more information please contact Rick Miller or Mick Henry.

DINNER FOR EIGHT SIGN UP NOW!

"Dinner for Eight" will begin a new rotation in October. This is a social activity that provides an opportunity to fellowship with one another over dinner. Sign up, and you will be put in a group of eight people. You can sign up as a couple or as an individual. Each couple or individual will have the group over for dinner once. If you sign up as an individual, you may be paired with another individual and you can "share" the host night. You can also "share" the host night if your home is not large enough to accommodate eight people for dinner. If you prefer, you can arrange to host the group at the church. The host provides the main dish and the rest of the group brings the remaining part of the meal.

Sign up below and return the form in the collection plate or to the church office.

If you have any questions please contact
Cindy Pickett (779-6264) or Renee
Henry (774-5892)

Please note: If you already participate in Dinner for Eight, you will automatically be reassigned to a new group.

Yes! I want to participate in Dinner for Eight.
